The benchmark 12 month Treasury bill rate which was at 7.30% in January spiked to 10.64% in March and ended at 10.55% by the end of June. The long term Treasury bond market continued to be volatile as some foreign investors exited the market.

Future Outlook

The economy is expected to grow at around 5.5% in 2016. The Future outlook on growth will depend on Government policy which continues to be unclear.

Export markets remain a concern, as both the USA and Europe face declining economic growth in addition to social and political challenges. Low crude oil prices would be beneficial for the economy. Volatility in international commodity prices and currency markets, after Brexit remain a concern. The Bullish sentiment of international investors for the recent Sovereign Bond issued by the Government however is encouraging. It is anticipated that foreign direct investment will follow.

Interest rates are expected to increase towards the end of the year as the Government crowds out the private sector.

The Fund being a Gilt Edge Fund is invested in a mix of Government securities. The Managers will continue to monitor the interest rate environment and make changes to the investment profile, to fulfill the Fund objective of providing liquidity and regular income for the investor.
